Império do Brasil

Olho-de-Boi · The Bull's Eyes · 1 August 1843

Scott 1
30 réis

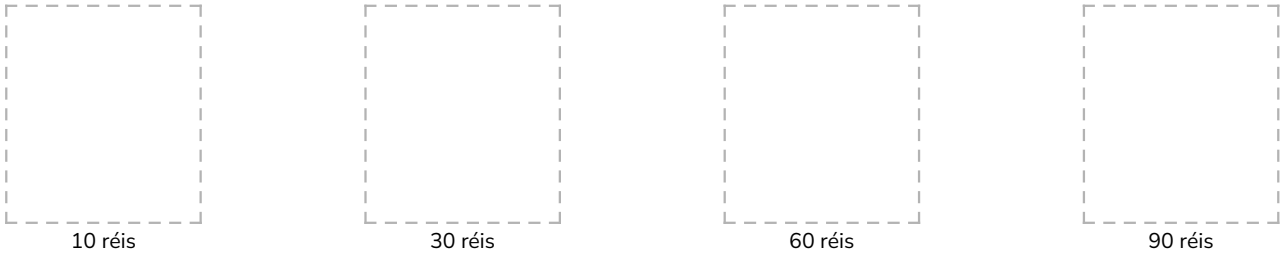

Scott 2
60 réis

Scott 3
90 réis

Brazil was the second country after Great Britain to issue stamps for nationwide use. The large numerals, framed by fine engine-turned patterns, reminded people of a bull's eye — and the nickname stuck.

The 'Goat's Eyes' · 1844

10 réis

30 réis

60 réis

90 réis

Engraved at the Imperial Mint, Rio de Janeiro